

To whom it may concern:

Recently, we are looking for the orthotic technician, detail see below

A soon graduated prosthetist/orthotist technician to join our clinical team who will help us in providing the area's best care to our patients.

While being a part of our highly skilled and compassionate team, this position is directly involved in the operations and supports patient care services. an individual who are bilingual, demonstrates great attention to detail, with excellent customer services skills; only selected candidate, will be contacted;

Thank you